Dear sir/madam

APPLICATION OF ANY SUITABLE POSITION AT YOUR COMPANY THAT FIT MY QUALIFICATION

I am Farahanis binti Roslan, a holder of Bachelor Engineering Technology(Hons) In Data Communication from UniKL British Malaysian Institute and i will graduate on October 2017. Currently, I am looking for a job opportunity in your company. This would be my first step to step out from my current position as I am seeking for a chance to be the part your crew of your company.

I have learned and I am very excited with the prospect of the company and I strongly believe that I can contribute in many aspects to the company especially in the information technology and telecommunication major.

I am well trained and been adequately equipped with knowledge particularly in telecommunication industry. I am also highly motivated, passionate, positive person and eager to learn new things as a part of improving myself as the time passed by. Hence, I am sure that if I am employed by the company, I can offer my best shot to contribute to the company success.

Together with this letter, I attach my resume which includes my personal details, qualifications as well as my working experiences. I hope you can consider my application and I am looking forward in hearing you soon. Your cooperation is highly appreciated. Any information you can inform me via email roslanfarahanis@yahoo.com and call me at 0176575886.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Farahanis binti
Roslan.
